BETA GAMMA SIGMA STUDENT LEADERSHIP FORUM

Debuting in 2001, the Beta Gamma Sigma Student Leadership Forum brings together student members from colleges and universities across the country for a chance to improve their leadership skills.

- With a hands-on experience, the Student Leadership Forum challenges the chosen participants to examine questions such as “What Kind of Leader Will I Be?”
- It includes team-building exercises, social activities, networking and other activities that make the Student Leadership Forum a very positive step forward in the professional lives of those taking part.

Two College of Business’ students, Jagoda Blaszkiewicz and Annamaria Havrillova, have been given the opportunity to attend the BGS Student Leadership Forum this Winter 2013. The students became members of BGS in 2012 and represented WPU chapter at the Winter Student Leadership Forum which was held in January 2013 in Jacksonville, Florida. Jagoda is the current Vice President of Membership of Beta Gamma Sigma William Paterson University Chapter while Annamaria acts as the chapter Vice President of Media.
