AccessAbilities 2013

Changing the Landscape of the Early Childhood Classroom to Meet the Needs of All Learners

Friday, April 26, 2013 • 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
1600 Valley Road • Wayne, NJ 07470

The use of technology has become an essential tool in the 21st century classroom. Young learners are drawn to the multifaceted design that many of the technologies offer, which appeal to individual learning styles. This conference will address a variety of technology tools and strategies, which educators and therapist need to embrace in order to meet the academic, social and communication needs of diverse learners.
