Study Aboard in China
Summer 2015

- Acquire Chinese language skills through real life practice.
- Develop multicultural communication skills with local native speakers.
- Identify aspects of Chinese cultural practices & civilization achievements.
- Appreciate artistic values of Chinese art and music traditions.

The Program
With a combination of classroom instructions, seminars and cultural excursions, the program is designed to provide the opportunity for students to gain first-hand experiences about contemporary Chinese cultural patterns, customs, literature, history, and social development.

Who May Apply
The program is ideal for meeting the requirements of Asia Study majors and the GE non-Western/Global area. Registration is open to all students.

Faculty
Dr. Lan Jiang and faculties in Chinese cooperation institutions on site will be teaching the courses respectively.
