

Student Disciplinary Code

Students' Rights and Responsibilities

Students and student organizations should be free to examine and discuss all questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly and privately. They should be free to support causes by orderly means that do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the University.

It is the responsibility of all students of the University to adhere to the letter and spirit of duly enacted university policies, rules, and regulations. Students shall not violate or attempt to violate any duly promulgated and approved University policy, rule, or regulation.

Violations of said policies, rules, or regulations may result in a variety of sanctions. The University shall attempt to address disciplinary matters privately, informally, and expeditiously before resorting to formalized procedures or the use of outside agencies.
