Your application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." Verification is a process governed by Federal and/or State regulations and is used to ensure that the information applicants report on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is accurate. In this process, WPU will compare information from your 2014-15 FAFSA with this form, copies of 2013 U.S. Federal Income Tax Return Transcripts, or if applicable, W-2 forms and other financial documents. If there are differences between the information on the FAFSA and your financial documents, WPU will need to make corrections. Information retrieved using the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Data Retrieval Process and not subsequently changed, is considered acceptable documentation for IRS-related information, and your Federal Tax Return Transcript will not be required. Feel free to contact the Financial Aid Office at 973-720-2202. Please read and complete all sections below.

If your biological or adoptive *parents are divorced or separated, you should have answered the FAFSA questions about the parent you lived with more during the past 12 months. (If you did not live with one parent more than the other, you should have answered the FAFSA questions about the parent who provided more financial support during the past 12 months or during the most recent year that you actually received support from a parent.) If this parent is remarried as of today, include your stepparent as a household member.

SECTION 1: HOUSEHOLD INFORMATION

In the chart below, list the people in the household of the parent for whom information was provided on the FAFSA.

Members of the household include:

- You the student even if you don't live with your parents.
- The *parents (including a stepparent), even if the student does not live with the parents.
- The parents' other children if the parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2014-2015. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they now live with parents and the parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015.

Also, include below information about any household member, excluding the parents, who will be enrolled at least half time in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at an eligible postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2014, and June 30, 2015.
