The Undergraduate Council also approved and recommended to the Senate the following changes to existing programs:

- 1) Changes to the program and department name in African World Studies.
- 2) Changes to the Latin America and the Latino Studies Program, condensing the tracks of the two programs.
- 3) Changes to the English Major Writing Concentration, including the addition of a capstone course and additional freedom to study multiple genres of literature.
- 4) The addition of a concentration in Financial Planning to the BS in Business Administration.
