

- Audacity Audio Software:

The two (free) software pieces to download (ie, make them 'talk' to each other):

<http://audacity.sourceforge.net/>

and

<http://audacity.sourceforge.net/help/faq?s=install&item=lame-mp3>

- Learning Reasons for Teachers to Podcast:

To explain difficult concepts

To provide read-along directions for tests

To provide review of project or assignment directions at home (for student & parent)

To improve fluency in reading, vocab practice

To provide models of questioning

To supplement field trips (audio tour)

Storytelling, encouragement (inflection)

Harmonize with yourself!

- Administrative Reasons for Teachers to Podcast:

Announcements , reminders

Absent buddies, guidance functions

"Honeywell" mass voicemails

Track supplemental use of tools

Track attention to content in podcasts

Storytime in Japanese (differentiated instruction)

Surprises (audio 'Easter eggs')

- Resources From the Podcast Session:

<http://www.how-to-podcast-tutorial.com/17-audacity-tutorial.htm>

<http://www.slideshare.net/cliotech/do-you-have-the-audacity-to-podcast?src=embed>

<http://www1.cbsd.org/departments/staffdev/Documents/AudacityTutorial.ppt>

<http://jdorman.wikispaces.com/PETEC2008>

<http://jdorman.wikispaces.com/podcastingworkshop>

<http://www.apple.com/education/itunes-u/whats-on.html>

<http://simplythebest.net/sounds>

<http://partnersinrhyme.com>