

Scholarship/Research/Creative Expression Reimbursement Program

This program promotes and strengthens the scholarship/research capacity of the faculty. These funds are dedicated to those activities that support research: copying, transcribing, word processing, reproduction of scholarly or creative work. Funds not exceeding $250.00 annually may be requested for expenses related to travel, support for equipment or technology, or other funding required to assist in a scholarly research project.