

Career Development Reimbursement Program

Career development funding is available to interested faculty members who are pursuing a program of professional development. Faculty members must submit a narrative detailing how the proposed activity promotes professional growth in the areas teaching, scholarship, or service.