

Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE)

The CTE provides support for teaching and instructional improvement to faculty, staff, and students. Its primary goals are to improve student learning, to facilitate efforts by the faculty to improve instruction, to serve as a resource for anyone interested in teaching and learning, and to enhance the institution's reputation for excellence in teaching