*. Papers available online.

10. Each student is expected to read the assigned materials and be prepared to discuss them. Class participation is required. Each student is expected to read the assigned materials and participate in class discussions online. A student will lose 3 of the 30 possible points for class participation if he/she misses one day of class discussion.

11. Each student is expected to write a research paper on juvenile delinquency. In this paper, each student is expected to (1) select a juvenile delinquent problem, (2) identify the causes of the problem, and (3) provide solutions to the problem. Each student is also expected to give a presentation of the paper online on January 13, 2016.
12. There will be two exams for the session: The first exam will cover Chapters 1 through 5 of Juvenile Delinquency. The second exam will cover Chapters 6 through 10. Each exam will also include the reserved papers available online. Make-up exams will be given only in cases of emergency, i.e., illness or injury requiring the attention of a physician or in family crisis. The instructor must be informed of the problem, either prior to the exam or within two days after the absence. An unexcused absence will result in a failing grade on the exam.
13. Grading:

Your final grade will be based on 100 possible points:

First Exam=25	Second Exam=25	Class Participation=30
