Traffic and Transportation Planning:

Gordon Meth of RBA Group, the University's traffic consultant, presented the initial data from the traffic study including car counts. He reviewed RBA's methodology and preliminary findings. Most of the meeting was spent reviewing and discussing RBA's presentation with no formal action or recommendation taken.

New Garage:

The committee discussed potential garage clients, restrictions, operators, funding strategies, access control, and revenue control scenarios. While no decisions were made, the Committee familiarized itself with issues that would need to be evaluated over the next two years.
