

Atrium Art: Aerial and Close-up Views, Mixed-media collages by Drawing Studio students.

Exhibit dates: 4/3/12- 4/27/12, Atrium Lobby

Reception: 4/3/12, 4- 5:30 PM , Atrium Faculty Lounge (126)

Paul Illge, mixed-media collage, detail

Participating students:

Gabrielle Dennis	Gretchen Kilgore
Julia Fritz	Rae Pezzola
Amelia Granata	Jed Rockwell
Paul Illge	Michael Spangler
Mitsuhiro Kono	Marcus Verduin

Faculty: Professor Pamela Lawton

Special thanks to Dean Kara Rabbitt, of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Associate Provost and Interim Dean Stephen Hahn, of the College of the Arts and Communication, and Dr. Alejandro Anreus, Chair of the Art Department.

Students from the Drawing Studio Foundation class in the fall semester captured aspects of daily life of the Atrium with their artwork. In the throes of student traffic, on site, they created these animated and inventive mixed-media collages of people moving against the backdrop of the Atrium's elongated architectural spaces.