

William Paterson University
David and Lorraine Cheng Library, Lending Services Department

Repeated Use Request Form for Course Reserves

The Library will seek permission and pay royalty fees for any Reserve document exceeding Fair Use guidelines. The Library will not pay more than $50 in fees for a single document, and will not spend more than $100 for fees for a single course. The Library will contact the instructor once these limits are met or if permission is denied to discuss alternative resources.

Please visit our web page for more information about the Library's Fair Use guidelines:
www.wpunj.edu/library/reservinfo.shtml

Before completing this form, please review your materials on Reserve by checking the Library's online catalog, click Find Books, click Course Reserves tab, and find your name listed as instructor. Contact Lending Services if you are interested in obtaining a complete list with circulation information for each item. Indicate your decision regarding these readings by checking the appropriate box below.

Return this form to Jill Pruden, Lending Services, by November 20, 2008.

- I plan to use the same readings for the Spring 2009 semester that I placed on Reserve for Fall 2008 semester or another prior semester. I understand that the Library may need to obtain permission before offering repeated access to these readings and that seeking permission may take time or may be prohibitively expensive.
- I do not plan to use these readings. Please return these readings to me via interoffice mail.
- I plan to use only the readings indicated on the printed list, the other readings may be returned to me via interoffice mail. I understand that the Library may need to obtain permission before offering repeated access to these readings and that seeking permission may take time or may be prohibitively expensive.
