

William Paterson University General Education Revision Committee

Proposed sequences for University Studies and the Development of Skills & Knowledge across the Curriculum

Note: global and personal courses can move somewhat between years – except foreign language stays in 1st year

University Studies	Skill Area	Effective Communication	Critical Reasoning	Global Perceptions and Skills	Personal and Social Responsibility
Foundations	1 st Year Fall	University Writing	1 st year Inquiry Seminar Critical Reasoning 1	Foreign language and its culture	Healthy body
	1 st year Spring	Writing Intensive Course	Critical Reasoning 2	Foreign language Foundations for understanding global issues	Aesthetic Appreciation
	2 nd Year Fall	Writing or communication intensive	Critical Reasoning 3		Diversity
	2 nd Year Spring		Critical Reasoning 4 One each: Science, Math, Humanities , Social Science	Intercultural US-Other comparison
University Studies Applications in Major or Selected by Major	Junior	Writing or communication intensive	Applied Research in Major or directed by major	Non-western issues & perspectives	Ethical Issues in major, choices as directed by major
	Senior	Writing or communication intensive	Capstone in major or interdisciplinary	Global Perspectives in major or directed by major	Experiential , Internship, service learning, study abroad, student teaching

Notes: Foreign Languages: students who test out will be required to take an additional course related to cultures/global studies.