ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT 101

The Gloria S. Williams Advisement Center provides undergraduate students with information, guidance and support to create and implement an integrated educational plan. Advisement is an essential part of the undergraduate educational experience. Students who work closely with an advisor, feel empowered and equipped to attain their academic goals.

At William Paterson University, advising is a shared responsibility between professional advisors (within the Center and Colleges), faculty advisors and students. Every student has an assigned professional advisor and students are assigned a faculty advisor after he or she is declared and has earned over 60 earned credit hours. Every student is expected to take responsibility for their education and consider the advice given and ask questions.

Our Academic Advisors at William Paterson University are student success management professionals that are invested in students' academic success, personal growth and development. Academic Advisors also assist students with transitional challenges that may come especially for incoming first year and transfer students. If they have questions about courses, career paths, clubs and organizations, or selecting a major or minor, our advisors are trained to provide all necessary information for students to make an informed decision on their college journey. Academic Advisors are a part of a student's support network here at the University and are knowledgeable of campus resources to help students be successful in their college experience. Encourage your student to start connecting with their Academic Advisor now! Students can find who their advisor is by visiting WPCONnect and selecting DegreeWorks!

Come visit us during the summer from Monday-Thursday 8:00am-5:15pm in Raubinger Hall; we are closed most Fridays. During the school year, the center is open Monday-Friday from 8:30am - 4:30pm. For any questions, contact us at 973-720-2653.

- Will. Power. (First-Year Success Seminar)

- Language

William Paterson requires all students to complete up to 6 credits (two courses in one language) of a foreign language within the Basic I to Intermediate I sequence. Students with no prior experience in a chosen language begin with 1100 (Basic I) and fulfill their language requirement with the second semester 1110 (Basic II) of that language. Students with prior experience in a chosen language need to be placed into a given level of the 1100, 1110, 2100 sequence. The foreign language requirement is met upon completion of two semesters in the language from placement level or upon completion or exemption from the Intermediate I (2100) course. For Language Placement click here.

- Writing and Tech Intensive

William Paterson is committed to a nurturing learning environment in which writing and technology literacies are taken seriously across disciplines. Many courses at the University are designated as “WI” or “TI.” These are attributes to courses which could be in any major discipline or in the UCC.

- I. Four (4) Writing Intensive (WI) courses
- II. Two (2) Technology Intensive (TI) courses

Thus any course – within the UCC or any major, or any minor, or any free elective – that has been designated as a WI or TI course can be used by a student to satisfy the above requirements.

- Major/Minor Requirements

Each student must pursue a course of study in sufficient depth to be acquainted with both the basic body of knowledge therein and the frontiers to which it reaches. Credit requirements for the academic majors vary according to type of program.

Credits to complete majors vary, review requirements for your major to ensure that at least one half of the credits taken to complete a major must be earned at William Paterson University. Students are encouraged to declare a major when first enrolling in the University so they can take the appropriate courses for a timely degree completion, and so that departments can offer career-specific guidance. Students who exercise their option not to select a major program upon entering the University are classified as undeclared students. Undeclared students are strongly encouraged to apply for admission to a degree program no later than upon the completion of 45 credits.

- Summer and Winter Classes

William Paterson is committed to providing opportunities to help current WP students move ahead on the path to a college degree.

Summer and Winter classes offer students the chance to catch up, stay on track, or get ahead in their studies. For summer courses students can take advantage of the cost benefits as undergraduate summer tuition is 15% less than the semester per-credit rate and students are able to apply for summer financial aid. However, for winter courses students must pay out of pocket as there is no financial aid available.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

As an academic institution committed to the discovery and dissemination of truth, William Paterson University expects all members of the University community to conduct themselves honestly and with professional demeanor in all academic activities. William Paterson University has established standards of academic conduct because of its belief that academic honesty is a matter of individual and University responsibility and that, when standards of honesty are violated, each member of the community is harmed.

- Satisfactory Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Policy (SAP) is the term used to define successful completion of coursework to remain eligible for federal, state, and institutional financial aid. William Paterson University is required by federal and state regulations and institutional policy to determine whether a student is meeting SAP requirements. SAP evaluation occurs annually, once a year, at the end of the spring semester payment period. There are three distinct dimensions to satisfactory academic progress standards:

To review more of this Policy, please click here!

- I. Grade Point Average (Qualitative Measure)

- Students must maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA after attempting 12 credits. The University requires at least a 2.0 GPA for graduation.

- II. Maximum Time Frame Measure

- The minimum number of credit hours needed to complete an undergraduate program is 120. A student is eligible to receive funding up to 180 attempted credit hours. Some programs limit funding on a semester basis.

- III. Credit Completion Ratio or Calculating Pace (Quantitative Measure)

- Each year, a student's progress will be measured by comparing the number of attempted credit hours with the credit hours earned. This includes any course for which the student has remained enrolled past the drop/add period. A student who has attempted 30 or less credits must earn 60 percent of attempted credits. Students who have attempted greater than 30 credits must earn 67 percent of the cumulative attempted credits to maintain satisfactory academic progress. The formula is total earned credits divided by total attempted credits.

For the financial aid office, please click here!

Attempted Credits	Required Percentage	# of Credits That Must be Earned	Required Cumulative GPA
1 - 30	60%	18	2.0
31	67%	21	2.0
49	67%	33	2.0
73	67%	49	2.0

- Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes, laboratory periods, and other academic exercises regularly and punctually, and are responsible for all work required in courses. The instructor determines the effect of absences upon grades and may permit or deny the privilege of making up work, including examinations, within the time limits of the semester. In the event of a prolonged absence, a student is advised to consult with the faculty and Office of Graduate Admissions to explore options available for program completion.

- FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records, however these rights transfer to the student when they reach the age of 18 or attend college. William Paterson must have written permission from the student to release any information from a student's education record (I.e., academic records, financial aid, disciplinary records, etc.). We encourage families to review the form together to determine what is in the best interest of the students educational and financial need.

To complete, the student must visit WPCConnect >> Scroll to WP Enrollment Forms >> Select FERPA Authorization Form

- Academic Warning

William Paterson University expects all matriculated undergraduate students to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) which is defined as a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0. Academic warning means a student will be required to meet with his or her academic advisor who will monitor their academic performance. Students under academic warning are required to attend mandatory academic support workshops offered through Academic Development.

- Academic Probation

After two consecutive semesters (this does not include summer or winter session) where the student has failed to meet a 2.0 GPA requirement, a student will be placed on academic probation and will be issued an academic contract by their assigned advisor.

- University Dismissal

After three consecutive semesters (this does not include summer or winter session) of failing to meet a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0, a student may be dismissed from the University.

- Students who fail to meet a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 BUT have met the terms of their contract AND have a clear mathematical possibility of meeting the criteria of earning a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 will be placed on continuing academic probation.
- Students who fail to meet the terms of their academic contract AND fail to meet the criteria of earning a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 will be dismissed from the university

- Course Repeat

Currently enrolled undergraduate degree students may repeat a course or courses in which a grade lower than C was received but the option to repeat a course may be exercised no more than five (5) times in total during their matriculated enrollment. No individual course may be repeated more than twice.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

- Policy for Withdrawal and Leave of Absence

DEFINITIONS

Withdrawal: An official course withdrawal refers to an action taken by a student to withdraw from a course after program adjustment for one or more credits. The course grade for this action results in a “W” on their transcript. There are three types of withdrawals:

- Partial Withdrawal: The student withdraws from one or more courses but remains enrolled in at least one for the term.
- Term/Session Withdrawal (Complete withdrawal during a term/session): The student withdraws from all courses registered for a term.
- University Withdrawal: Students who wish to separate completely from the University.

Leave of Absence

- There are two types of leaves of absence:
 - Military Leave of Absence (MLOA): Students whose military obligations make it difficult or impossible for them to be successful in their academic program. For purposes of granting a MLOA, a military obligation is defined as (a) deployment, (b) mobilization leading to deployment, or (c) attendance at a military school or college.
 - Medical / Mental Health Leave of Absence: Students who must interrupt their studies temporarily due to physical or psychological conditions.

POLICY

Withdrawal Policy

- Course Withdrawal: Students are permitted to withdraw from one or more classes within the published semester timeline available on the semester calendar. A grade of ‘W’ is posted on the transcript. A ‘W’ does not count in the grade point average but does count towards attempted credits.
- Term/Session Withdrawal: Students who are currently registered for a term and withdraw from their full course load may return the following term/semester without taking further action. A grade of ‘W’ will be posted for all courses for that term. Students who do not return the following term/semester may return within two years of withdrawing by consulting with an advisor.
- University Withdrawal: Students who wish to withdraw from the university with no intent to return must request a university withdrawal.
- Responsibilities: If a student decides to return to William Paterson University after taking a University withdrawal that is longer than two years, they will need to complete the necessary paperwork for readmissions through the admissions office.
- Enforcement: Refunds after the published deadline WILL NOT be considered under any circumstances.

Leave of Absence Policy

- Leave of Absence must be requested prior to the start of the term.
- Students who receive federal Direct Loans will need to return before the end of the 180 day leave of absence time limit. Failure to return before the end of the 180 days will be considered a withdrawal for financial aid purposes related to reporting to the clearinghouse by the Office of the Registrar.
- Leave of Absence may not exceed two years for enrollment purposes.
- To be eligible for a leave of absence students must be in good academic standing. Unless an exception is made by the Dean of Students.
- Responsibilities: When a student on LOA is ready to enroll in courses, they must meet with an advisor in the Advisement Center to receive guidance on appropriate courses and the process for re-enrollment.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

- Enforcement: Students who fail to return from the approved leave of absence will be considered a complete withdrawal and will be required to re-apply to the University after a period of two years.
- The Registrar will reflect all students who qualify for military or medical LOA as a withdrawal through the national clearinghouse at the time they get approved prior to the beginning of the semester. When the student returns (before 180 days), it will be changed to a Leave of Absence in the clearinghouse.

PROCEDURE

- When a student registers in the fall or spring and they are approved for a LOA prior to the start of the semester, the student will be reflected as a withdrawal for the semester both on our Banner records and with the Clearinghouse.
- When the student returns at the start of the next semester, they will be reinstated as a LOA for the previous semester in Banner and the Clearing house if it is less than the 180-day maximum for financial aid purposes.
- To request a complete withdrawal or apply for a LOA student should communicate with an advisor.

Academic Integrity Policy

Violations of the Academic Integrity Policy will include, but not limited to the following examples:

1. Cheating:

During examinations includes any attempt to (1) look at another student's examination with the intention of using another's answers for attempted personal benefit; (2) communicate in any manner, information concerning the content of the examination during the testing period or after the examination to someone who has not yet taken the examination; (3) use any materials, such as notebooks, notes, textbooks or other sources, not specifically designated by the professor of the course for student use during the examination period or (4) engage in any other activity for the purpose of seeking aid not authorized by the professor.

2. Plagiarism:

The copying from a book, article, notebook, video or other source, material whether published or unpublished, without proper credit through the use of quotation marks, footnotes and other customary means of identifying sources, or passing off as one's own, the ideas, words, writings, programs and experiments of another, whether such actions are intentional or unintentional. Plagiarism also includes submitting, without the consent of the professor, an assignment already tendered for academic credit in another course.

3. Collusion:

Working together in preparing separate course assignments in ways not authorized by the instructor. Academic work produced through a cooperative (collaborative effort) of two or more students is permissible only upon the explicit consent of the professor. The collaboration must also be acknowledged in stating the authorship of the report.

4. Lying:

Knowingly furnishing false information, distorting data or omitting to provide all necessary, required information to the University's advisor, registrar, admissions counselor, professor, etc. for any academically related purpose.

Other concerns which relate to the Academic Integrity Policy include such issues as computer security, stolen tests, falsified records as well as vandalism of library materials. No list could possibly include all the possible violations of academic integrity. These examples should, however, give a clearer idea of the intent and extent of application of this policy.

WPU TECHNOLOGIES

At William Paterson University, there are an array of technologies that we utilize to best support our students needs, identify barriers to their success, have effective communication and monitor their academic progress throughout their college journey. All students are introduced to these various technologies either through their academic advisor or within their academic courses. If a student is having challenges with accessing technology at home such as a laptop or internet, they should communicate with their academic advisor. Our campus offers free WiFi and numerous computer labs with access to printers on campus. All students receive printing money from their tuition fees to use for printing out assignments and course materials per semester. WPU is invested in students' success and as such, we offer a laptop loan program to students to assist students with technology concerns. Navigate

Navigate is an application that shows college students all the important things they need to do in one easy-to-view path. Navigate also helps students to pick a major, build a best-fit course schedule, register for classes, find resources on campus, and communicate with their advisor.

Blackboard

Blackboard is a Web-based course-management system designed to allow students and faculty to participate in classes delivered online or use online materials and activities to complement face-to-face teaching. Students are able to view grades, submit assignments, participate in discussion posts, communicate with professors, etc.

Microsoft Outlook

The primary way of communication with students at a college/university is by email. At WPU, we use Microsoft Outlook for our email communications across the institution and with our students. William Paterson student emails are issued when a student is admitted to the University along with their student ID number (855#). They are created in a standard format as this: lastname.firstinitial.#@student.wpunj.edu. When a student is first admitted to the University, their password is their student ID number and they are encouraged to change it once they login to secure their email account. Students are expected to check their student emails several times a day. The recommendation from the Advisement Center is at least 3 times a day: morning (before they leave to come to class), afternoon (sometime midday between classes) and evening (after their school day concludes). The University, campus departments, professors, academic advisors and others are sending emails to students to keep them in the loop constantly. Therefore, it's easy to get overwhelmed with the abundance of emails when you aren't checking your inbox regularly. This is a practice for the future careers of our students as email is a primary form of communication at most companies, businesses and schools as we continue to become a more digital/virtual society.

Microsoft Teams

Microsoft Teams is an online instant message system that academic advisors, faculty and professional staff at the University can use for informal communication with a student to chat back and forth via text, call or video chat. Academic advisors use Microsoft Teams to communicate with students regarding urgent matters and to meet with their students on their caseloads for advisement appointments throughout the academic year. Freshman students are required to meet with their academic advisor at least 3 times per semester and upperclassmen (sophomores, juniors and seniors) are required to meet with them at least 2 times per semester.

SignalVine

SignalVine is a virtual texting platform that WPU uses to send out academic communications and alerts from the academic advisors and professional staff on campus. These texts go directly to a student's registered cell phone number on file. It is important for students to always update their contact information with the University to ensure they are getting all alerts, texts and University communications.
