

Faculty and teaching staff: Please join us on Friday, February 26, from 11-3:30 (with lunch break) for a Zoom pedagogy workshop. City as Text (CAT) refers to structured explorations of environments and ecosystems. Designed as on-going laboratories through which small teams investigate contested areas and issues in urban environments, or competing forces in natural ones, these exercises foster critical inquiry and integrative learning across disciplines. Participants will engage in a local walk about (on your own) and learn how to use this pedagogy in your courses, whether in person and online. Email Honors@wpunj.edu by Feb. 19 to RSVP. Enrollment is limited to 25 so please save your spot now!

A stylized graphic featuring a dark blue silhouette of a city skyline with various building shapes. The background is composed of geometric shapes in shades of blue and orange. The title 'CITY AS TEXT WORKSHOP' is prominently displayed in large, bold, orange letters across the center.

CITY AS TEXT WORKSHOP

Sponsored by the University Honors College and the Center for Teaching Excellence

All WP faculty and administrators are invited to join us for a City-as-Text workshop designed to help educators incorporate interdisciplinary and field-based elements into their classrooms and programs. The workshop will be led by Dr. Sara Quay, Dean of the School of Education, Endicott College.

RSVP to Honors@wpunj.edu by February 12.

When: February 26th, 2021

Time: 11 am - 3:30 pm, including a 1.5 hour break

ONLINE