

Discipline in Action Series

The College of Humanities & Social Sciences presents

Scott Warnasch, Forensic Anthropologist

Scott Warnasch has been a principal consultant for his own firm, SCWarnasch L.L.C. since 2015. Previously, he was a senior forensic anthropologist for the New York City Office of Chief Medical Examiner for 10 years, directed the OCME Human Remains Recovery excavations at the World Trade Center site, and assisted and consulted with NYPD and the FBI on crime scene search and recovery operations.

New Date!

April 18, 2018

12:30 p.m.

Science Hall East 5003

This event was made possible in part by the William Paterson University Alumni Association's Distinguished Visiting Professorship.