

On-Campus Talk This Thursday : “New Opportunities for Federally Funded Grants at Public Institutions”

New Opportunities for Federally Funded Grants at Public Institutions

Dr. Bonnie Green

Thursday, April 27 at 12:30-1:45 PM

Science East Room 2063

We are happy to announce that Dr. Green, a Full Professor of Psychology at East Stroudsburg University will be on our campus this Thursday, April 27, to discuss opportunities for federal grants at regional, public institutions, like WP. During her career, Dr. Green has secured over four million dollars in institutional grants, including a National Science Foundation Improving Undergraduate STEM Education (IUSE) Grant.

During the talk, Dr. Green will discuss increased opportunities for grant funding for regional comprehensives in certain key areas, particularly STEM education.

The talk will be followed by a Q&A session. Dr. Green's talk will be a great opportunity for those of you in the Social Sciences and data-driven humanities to learn more about federal funding opportunities available for research and student support programs.

This event is sponsored by the College of Humanities and Social Sciences.
