

USE YOUR LANGUAGE SKILLS IN YOUR PROFESSIONAL CAREER

APRIL 9TH 4:15PM - 6:50PM

ATRIUM AUDITORIUM ROOM 144

Refreshments will be served

Are you ready to package your foreign language skills for the job market?

Can you connect your language studies to your career aspirations?

Do you have a workplace-ready, professional resume?

Can you engage in appropriate, professional networking and interviewing?

In this workshop, we will explore the answers to these questions. Then we will develop hands-on strategies to build the skills you need to succeed in your job search and career. Develop these skills now--while you're still on campus—for a smooth college-to-career transition.

Workshop led by Darcy Lear, PhD:

A career coach who trains foreign language students to highlight their language and cultures studies in job search documents and interview preparation so they stand out in the job search and workplace. She has a PhD in education and over 20 years of experience teaching at the college level.
