

WISE Year End Celebration

Tuesday, April 9th
12:30 - 1:55 PM
Hobart Manor

By, Darlene Panzitta

A unique career alternative for women with a science degree. Learn about the career path of Darlene Panzitta the President/Founder of DSP Clinical Research. A drug development company working in the secret world of human clinical drug trials

Darlene's Presentation will include an overview of the clinical research industry and jobs within the industry for students earning a Bachelor or Masters degree in the sciences or nursing. She will also discuss her career path and journey from deciding to attend college to managing and owning a clinical research business with over 40 employees and 28M in revenue.

Lunch will be served