

The Department of Africana-World Studies presents:

AFRICINEMA

"A LITANY FOR SURVIVAL: THE LIFE AND WORK OF AUDRE LORDE"

Poet, lover, mother, warrior — Audre Lorde writes passionately of love and anger, civil rights and sexuality, family politics and the glories of nature. Ada Gay Griffin and Michelle Parkerson reveal the potent legacy of this celebrated African American poet, whose life was cut short after a long battle with breast cancer.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2014
ATRIUM AUDITORIUM
4 P.M. ~ 6 P.M.

#AWSYearofthePoet

