

Habari Gani? Kwanzaa 101

The background features a row of seven Kwanzaa candles (mishiki) in yellow, orange, and red, set against a light green background. The candles are arranged in a slightly curved line, with the central candle being the tallest and the outermost candles being the shortest. The entire graphic is framed by a decorative border of small, colorful squares in orange, teal, and white.

Join professors in the Department of Africana-World Studies for a dialog about the history, tradition, and elements of the African-American holiday – Kwanzaa

Tuesday December 8th
11:45 – 12:30
Atrium 126

*Students, faculty and staff are welcome
Soulful refreshments will be served*