

Have you published this year?

The Cheng Library staff is pleased to honor our University colleagues whose research and scholarship has resulted in books, journal articles and other substantial works – including media – with a bibliography of material published or released within the past two years.

Join us on Tuesday, March 1, 2016 to celebrate these scholarly achievements of the University community during University Research and Scholarship Week.

Please submit your published materials for inclusion in this year's author bibliography

The Bibliography and published materials will be displayed at the reception.

Send your publications to Beth Ann Bates no later than

Tuesday, March 1, 2016

This will ensure that your work is included in the Bibliography.

Contact Beth Ann at x2164 or authorreception@wpunj.edu with any questions.

The Office of Sponsored Programs will recognize recipients of various grants and awards.
