

WHERE ARE ALL THE BLACK PEOPLE?

BY: ERICKA HART

W.A.A.T.B.P, is a multimedia interactive storytelling experience that opens up a larger conversation on the deeply human, nuanced facets of the macro issues that black queer and trans people face, and the ways in which we can use our own personal narratives to identify, and then divest from systems and institutions that impact our ability to dismantle them as a means to heal.

FEBRUARY 19TH
12:30 pm - 2:00 pm
MULTIPURPOSE ROOM

FUNDED BY: THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
CO-SPONSORED BY: IQA, FEMINIST COLLECTIVE,
SOPHOMORE, AND JUNIOR EXPERIENCE, THE WOMEN'S CENTER, BSU, AND SABLE

