The Paradox of Education

Envisioning Educators' Roles in Dismantling Hate

Thursday, April 15 | 12:30 p.m. - 1:45 p.m.

Meeting ID: 993 1183 9590

Passcode: 054953

Program Details

What is the role of education in addressing hate and bigotry in the United States today? In this workshop, we will explore the Anti-Defamation League's Hate on Display project, a database cataloging the messages, symbols, codes, and memes of bigotry, past and present. James Baldwin's concept of the "paradox of education" will help us to envision the role of educators in responding to social injustice. Facilitated by Alison Dobrick, Ed.D. Associate Professor, Department of Teacher Education and Director, Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies.

Sponsored by the Office of Employment Equity and Diversity and the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies.
