

Guidelines for Thesis Completion:
MFA in Creative and Professional Writing

Before you can submit your thesis electronically to the Graduate Program Director, you need to get the required signatures for the signature page. A hard copy of the signature page when completed needs to be given to the Graduate Program Director along with an electronic copy of your thesis. The GPD should receive both documents no later than the evening of the Graduate Colloquium.

The electronic version of your thesis should be saved in Word and should include the following:

- Title page
- Signature page
- Copyright page
- Thesis
- Craft Essay
- Bibliography/Works Cited if applicable

At the end of this document, you will find a sample of the title page, signature page and copyright page. Once received, your thesis will be uploaded to the university archives for permanent storage.

Samples of the title page, signature page and copyright page follow below.
