

Debra Brown, M. A. (Project Assistant)

Debra Brown is the Project Assistant for the Project HEAL evaluation team. She has a B.A. in English and an M.A. in English Writing both degrees acquired at William Paterson University. She is currently retired after 30 years of service at William Paterson University.

During her years of employment with the university, she worked in several human service related areas including Human Resources, Employment Equity and Diversity and, lastly, the Sociology Department where she had the opportunity to work with the William Paterson University's Campus Violence Prevention Program.