

Robert Green, B. A. (Research Assistant)

<https://orcid.org/0000-0002-6940-7779>

Robert Green is a Research Assistant for the Project HEAL evaluation team. He holds a B.A. in Criminal Justice, Sociology & Gender Studies from Rutgers University – Camden. Robert is currently a student at Rutgers University – Newark for his M.A. He also holds an 18-hour certification in mediation from the state of New Jersey. His research experience is currently qualitative in nature with a focus on violence, deviance, and gender.

Prior to joining the Project HEAL evaluation team, Robert has been a teaching assistant for Introduction to Cultural Anthropology. He has also been serving as a research assistant at the Penn State Abington Criminal Justice Research Council (CJRC). His job is to analyze data of involuntary celibates, also known as incels using discourse analysis in order to find the central metaphors that dictates language creation within their culture. He currently has a work recently published in Deviant Behavior.