

35th Annual Bilingual/ESL Conference

This program is offered for 0.5 ASHA CEUs (Various Levels; Professional)

Biographies and Disclosures

Dr. Betty Kollia Betty Kollia, PhD, CCC-SLP is a bilingual Professor in the Dept. of Communication Disorders and Sciences and Director of the Center for Research of the College of Science and Health at William Paterson University. She is also a Clinical Supervisor at the Department's Clinic. Her research interests include the study of speech, language, and cognition in bilingual individuals.

Disclosures:

Financial – Receives a salary from William Paterson University where she is faculty.

Non-Financial – No relevant nonfinancial relationship exists.

Dr. Yan Yu is an Assistant Professor in the Department Communication Sciences and Disorders at St. John's University in NY. Dr. Yu is also a speech-language pathologist certified by the American Speech-Language and Hearing Association. Her research focuses on the brain's cortical responses to language development and bilingual experience.

Disclosures:

Financial – Receives a salary from St. John's University where she am a faculty member.

Non-Financial – No relevant nonfinancial relationship exists.