Director's Council Recognition Awards

The Directors' Council Steering Committee solicits nominations for Directors' Council Recognition Awards annually. The awards are presented at the final general meeting of the academic year. The selection committee will be comprised of the award winners from the prior year (if nominated again, said member will excuse him/herself from the discussion). Award recommendations will be made using the criteria listed below, although preference will be given to nominees who demonstrate consistent commitment to the Directors' Council.

Awards

- Each winner will receive a certificate.

Eligibility

- All members of the Directors' Council are eligible; thus participating Associate and Assistant Directors are eligible.

Procedures

- Nominations may be submitted from any member of the University community
- Members of the Directors' Council may self-nominate
- Nominations must state the category of the award intended (Innovation or Collaboration & Consideration) and be limited to a two-page statement describing the program or initiative, the nominee's role and the impact of the nominee's effort
- Nominations must be submitted to Claudia Tormino in the Provost's Office

Deadline

- Nominations should be submitted by Sunday, June 12, 2022.

Criteria for Selection of Candidates for Recognition

Innovation Award

The recipient of the Innovation Award will be recognized for his or her leadership in a project or initiative that results in an innovative and successful program that advances one or more aspects of University life.

Collaboration & Consideration Award

Recipients of the Collaboration & Consideration Award will be recognized for their leadership resulting in a project or initiative that demonstrates the value of synergy and collaborative efforts between two or more departments. The project or initiative should provide exemplary service to the student body or to other members of the University or to the greater, external community.
