

Recruiting Today's Students to Become Tomorrow's Teachers

This conference is planned for approximately 400 students in grades 9-12. Registration will be on a first-come, first serve basis. Students must be registered and accompanied by a high school faculty member or NJFEA adviser.

Each high school is invited to bring approximately 10-15 exemplary students who are interested in becoming teachers, particularly in high shortage subjects and/or urban school districts.

There is no charge for attending this conference. Complimentary breakfast and lunch will be provided. Dress is smart casual.

Registration must be completed by an NJFEA adviser or high school faculty member. Students may not register themselves.
