

Optional Information:

Applicants are provided the opportunity below to share any information with the Office of Residence Life that they would like to be considered regarding their Gender Inclusive Housing Application. (please click on each line to enter text)

Application Process/Timeline for current residents in housing:

A housing application must be submitted in MyResCenter portal and the $150 housing deposit completed online. Continuing students should complete the housing application and deposit by the dates posted on the Room Selection page on the Residence Life webpage at www.wpunj.edu/reslife.

Application Process/Timeline for new students/not currently in housing:

A housing application must be submitted in MyResCenter portal and the $150 housing deposit completed online. Assignments for new students are completed on a continual basis and are contingent upon room availability.

Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement

By submitting this application form and e-signing below, you acknowledge and accept all of the terms as stated in the Gender Inclusive Housing Agreement listed below.

Participants in Gender Inclusive Housing agree to the following terms:

- Gender Inclusive Housing is an opportunity for residents to choose to live together with other students regardless of gender. Participants must commit to maintaining a safe and comfortable living environment, free of discrimination based on race, assigned gender at birth, color, age, national origin, ability, sexual orientation, religion or marital status.
- Housing applications are submitted for the full academic year (fall and spring semester).
- Residence life encourages all applicants to communicate their decision to apply for Gender Inclusive Housing to all persons who support their collegiate and residential experience at William Paterson University.
- Any applicant who is not assigned to Gender Inclusive Housing will be eligible to participate in Room Selection under the usual terms and conditions of the housing selection process.
